Indonesian Folklore 8

ISBN: 978-602-252-205-8

Jaka Tarub, a good looking young man who lived alone in a very small town at the countryside, wandered around in the jungle. He was lost and decided to set up a shelter and stayed there for a night. In the next morning, he continued his journey home. While he was walking, he heard girls giggling and laughing. He peeped through the bushes and saw seven fairies who were taking a bath in the lake. Amazed by their beauty, he wanted to get closer and watch them clearly. So he walked quietly and carefully on his toes so that none of them heard him. He heard them calling each other's name while playing in the water. He stared at one of them for a long time without blinking his eyes. Soon, he found out that her name was Nawang Wulan. He was falling in love with her. How could he possibly fall in love with a fairy? He thought. He was wondering whether there was an opportunity for them to be together. Suddenly, he noticed the dresses they put by the lake. He knew that fairies need their fairy dresses to fly back to their palace. Soon he took Nawang Wulan's dress and hid it, hoping that Nawang Wulan could not go back to her palace. What happened next? Did Jaka Tarub and Nawang Wulan finally live happily ever after? Read on!

Each books contains 6 folklores from Indonesia. Along with fine illustrations and well-narrated stories, this book is suitable for children and teenagers.
